This tool evaluates and monitors the degree to which gender equity has been institutionalized inside organizations. Policies, programs, projects, the supply of programmed structures, and processes are all included. The college makes a constant effort to assess how its planned and ongoing initiatives may affect gender parity. It improves the organization's overall ability to assess its operations from a gender viewpoint and pinpoint its advantages and disadvantages.

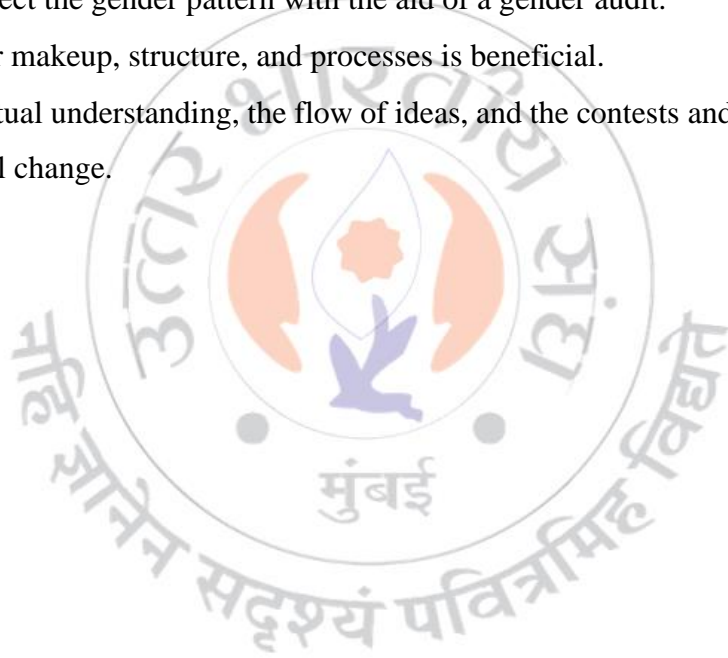

The significance of the Gender Audit:

One approach to gender mainstreaming is the Gender Audit.

Organizations can detect the gender pattern with the aid of a gender audit.

Understanding gender makeup, structure, and processes is beneficial.

It promotes better mutual understanding, the flow of ideas, and the contests and skill development needed to bring about societal change.

The institution has started two initiatives: a) a gender audit report and b) measures to promote gender equality through extracurricular, curriculum-based, and women-only activities. A tool for assessing and verifying the institutionalization of gender equity in the college is the gender audit. The organization uses the gender mainstreaming approach to determine the gender pattern. For the institution's gender audit, a gender audit committee was established. For it, four seasoned members were appointed.

Adv. Anita Pathak, a member of the gender audit committee; Asst Prof. Rameshwari Dubey; and Prof. Milind Ghajdhane of the host college Mahendra Pratap Sharada Prasad Singh College of Commerce & Science.

The gender composition of the student committee revealed that, relative to the total number of students, more than 65% of them are female. It validates the ration of girl students.
